THE CARPET BAGGERS IN CONGRESS.

Now that the people of the Southern States are slowly emerging from the condition of captives to recover their rights with their duties as citizens of the Union, it will begin, perhaps, to be clear to all men's perceptions not only that the class of persons known as "carpet baggers" really are held in contempt at the South, but, also, that they deserve to be held in contempt, and that in the North as well as in the South. The carpet bag in itself is a harmless necessary impediment enough, nor is it intrinsically contemptible that a man whose whole worldly goods are compressible within a carpet bag should pack them into one, take it up, and set forth in search of fortune.—Honest men, men of sense and of character, with or without carpet bags, are needed in the South, as they are needed in the West, in the East,—wherever there is work to be done, wherever there are resources to be developed and opportunities to be put to profit. Nor is there any reason to suppose that the South, any more than the West or the East, desires to repel such persons from its borders. The "carpet bagger" whom the South abhors is no such person. The true and odious "carpet bagger" is a political adventurer who has got place and pelf for himself by making the poverty and the political prostration of the Southern whites work together with the credulity and ignorance of the Southern blacks for his personal advancement. All honest and respectable Northern leaders of the party with which such adventurers have necessarily acted know perfectly well that the arts and influences by which the "carpet baggers" have gained their object are infamous and arts which no honest and respectable man could possibly use either at the South or at the North. Knowing this, they naturally shun all but the most strictly formal associations for strictly political purposes with such persons. The "carpet bagger" who appears at Washington in the guise of a Radical Representative from Georgia or of a Radical Senator from Louisiana may be put upon a committee, but he is not taken into its councils; he may be admitted to a caucus, but he has no share in shaping its decisions; he may be granted the floor in Congress, but no man listens to his palaver. The scandal of his presence among them must be endured by the Republicans who really represent real constituencies, for it is they who have made that scandal possible by the tissue of outrages upon liberty which they have christened "the Reconstruction of the South." But they are only willing to endure this scandal as a body. As individuals, they keep their skirts as clear of personal contact as possible with the creatures of their evil work. The position is an awkward and disagreeable one, doubtless. But is of their own making. They are punished whereby they sinned. Desiring to get Radical members into Congress from the South, they planned a system under which it is simply impossible that Radical members should get into Congress from the South without disgrace and dishonor. Northern men who appear in Congress as Democratic Conservative members from the South are treated by respectable Radicals from the North with courtesy and respect, because those respectable Radicals know that they were sent to Congress by the best men, the real people, of the districts which they claim to represent. The nonsense which is talked on the stump at the North and West about the "truly loyal" constituencies of the genuine Radical "carpet-baggers," by no means cheats the politicians who talk it. They understand the true state of the case perfectly, and they govern their personal relations accordingly.

The average Radical Congressman from the North is not much of a hero, nor does he greatly resemble the Douglas of Sir Walter Scott's chivalric poem. But he has sense and self-respect enough to make as sharp a difference between the official and the personal claims of the average Radical "carpet bagger" from the South, as was made by the grim old Earl between the official and the personal claims of the English convoy:

"My manors, halls, and bowers shall still
Be open at my sovereign's will
To each one whom he lists, howe'er
Unmeet to be the owner's peer;
* * * *
The hand of Douglas is his own,
And never shall in friendly grasp
The hand of such as Marmion clasp."

This abject and twilight condition of the Radical carpet baggers in Congress is one of the many hopeful augories of the near dawning of a better day. The contempt in which these men are held is reaching, slowly, perhaps, but surely, upon the system which has called them into being.—The spectacle of a class of Congressional Pariahs representating the tyranny of an ignorant minority over an intelligent majority cannot but be revolting to a free people. Armies and acts of Congress may make a spectacle possible for a time. They cannot make it for any long time tolerable.

A STRANGE DREAM.—A few nights ago, a lady, while taking a walk lost a valuable diamond ring from her finger in some unaccountable way. Diligent and extensive search was made, without any clue to the ring, and the lady gave it up as gone "for good and all." Before daylight the following morning the lady was surprised by the calls of her nurse, a small negro girl. On being admitted to her mistress, the girl, who had not heard of the ring being lost, said she had just had a dream, in which she was apprised when, where and how the jewel had been lost, and that, if allowed, she felt sure she could find it. She then described the place and manner in which the ring disappeared, and begged her mistress to go with her and test the dream. This strange circumstance was made known to the household, but all treated it with the utmost incredulity. It was afterwards concluded to humor the girl, however, and she and several white members of the family proceeded to the designated spot, more than a hundred yards from the house. Here the dreamer told her mistress that, as directed in her dream, she must drop another ring and it would roll as a guide to the missing one. A plain gold ring was handed the girl, she let it fall, and sure enough it rolled within two inches of the lost diamond ring, which had got into a crevice between two bricks of the pavement. It may be imagined that the ring hunters were somewhat astounded at the miracle. There is not the least fiction about this curious dream and its result.—Louisville Courier Journal.

MORE OF THE HIDDEN HISTORY OF THE WAR.

The Order for the Removal of Gen. Thomas by Gen. Grant—How it was Pocketed (or Banks-ettal) by Gen. Halleck—The Battle of Nashville and its Hero—Gen. Pope in the Saddle.

As a general thing one would expect to learn of the secret acts of the War Department during the rebellion in Washington rather than in California. But the occasion of Gen. Halleck's departure from the Pacific coast for the East has accidentally brought to light the facts connected with the order relieving Gen. George H. Thomas when he was at the head of his army and before the enemy at Nashville.

Among a number of friends who had called in San Francisco to say good by to General Halleck, he was asked concerning his part in that transaction, when he gave the following history of it:

President Lincoln, Secretary Stanton and himself, all had the greatest faith in General Thomas. They were anxious to have him move, but trusted his judgment implicitly, as he was on the ground. One morning, a few days before the battle of Nashville, the President received a request from General Grant that General Thomas should be immediately removed. The President took the note over to Mr. Stanton, saying that it was a very bad business, that he deeply regretted the step, and but for disregarding a direct request of the General-in-Chief he would not consent to it. Mr. Stanton was equally decided as to the impolicy of the step. General Halleck was called in, and opposed the measure very earnestly. Finally Mr. Lincoln said he did not feel at liberty to interfere, but he would like to have the order show that he was not the first mover in the matter. General Halleck then drew an order covering the case, though not placing the entire responsibility upon General Grant. Upon seeing this Mr. Stanton directed it to be changed, to read so as to show that it was done by the special request of the General-in-Chief, and neither Mr. Lincoln nor Mr. Stanton were willing to go before the country on anything less than that. General Halleck felt that a great military mistake and outrage was being committed, and that in some way it should be prevented. The conference over the matter was a long and earnest one. At length General Halleck asked Mr. Stanton if he would report him for disobedience of orders if he should delay the publication of this particular one for a few days. Mr. Stanton said he would not. General Halleck pocketed the order. A few days after General Thomas had completed his preparations, moved upon the Confederates and defeated them. As it is well known, the order, so much talked of since, was never issued.

It has been the received opinion that General Logan was the officer designated by General Grant to supersede General Thomas. This, it seems, is a mistake. According to General Halleck, the request of General Grant also specified General Schofield as the successor, and the order, as finally written, did designate him for the place. The name of General Logan did not at any time come up in connection with the change, either on the part of Grant or of the authorities in Washington, nor was General Schofield aware of the request made by Grant. General Thomas' army of friends—larger now by many times than the great army he commanded—will read this with interest.

GENERAL POPE'S HEADQUARTERS.

There was a gentleman present on this occasion in San Francisco who had the facts connected with the order issued by General Pope establishing his headquarters in the saddle, which afterwards awakened so much ridicule.

He gave Mr. Stanton as authority for the statement that that order was not issued thoughtlessly and as a piece of bombast, but that none published at that time was the subject of more careful deliberation. That McClellan's situation near Richmond was then most precarious; that the War Department was greatly concerned about it and thought it necessary to do everything in its power to create the impression among the Confederate commanders that a movement of great strength was to be immediately made in the valley by Pope. As a part of the plan this very order was agreed upon, issued and allowed to pass at once into the Confederate lines. Two years after the war the publication of official documents showed that General Pope was not responsible for the despatch announcing the great capture of prisoners and arms below Corinth, and now comes this statement of Secretary Stanton to vindicate an order which, in the minds of so many, was of a piece with the first.

WARLIKE PREPARATIONS IN FRANCE.—A recent circular from the Minister of War, Marshal Neil, instructs the commanders of military divisions to proceed with the greatest activity in instructing the corps of all branches of the service. In this circular Marshal Neil acknowledges that it imposes heavy sacrifices on the country to place an effective force of 400,000 men. He consequently recommends the commanders to turn every moment to account in drilling the troops and "seriously preparing them for all the operations of war." He holds that all the corps shou'd be so complete as to be able to place all available men in the field, and that no soldier is to be accorded leave of absence without absolute necessity.—Warlike preparations have not, says the Gaulois, been arrested for an instant along the entire extent of the frontier on the Rhine. The troops stationed on the frontier have not been reduced by a company, and at Strasburg the magazines continue to receive all sorts of military supplies. The report, published by the Gaulois, that troops had been called from Algeria has been officially contradicted.

THE LAKES AND THE MISSISSIPPI.—It has been mentioned in our local columns that a little steamer of fifteen tons burthen left here last Thursday for Attakapas, Louisiana, to make her way by canal to New York, thence by river and through canals and lakes to the Mississippi. In addition to this effort to demonstrate an inland communication with the Mississippi from the North, we see it stated that Robert B. Wentworth is on his way to Dubuque, Iowa, from Oshkosh, Wisconsin, with a steamer and two barges laden with one million shingles, intending to take back to Green Bay a cargo of wheat, and thus demonstrate the feasibility of navigation from the Mississippi to the lakes through the Wisconsin and Fox rivers.—Baltimore Sun.

SURPLUS OVER LIABILITIES 2,675,999,48.

THE Ætna is the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina.
Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!
The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 14, 1869.

GOV. HOLDEN AND THE RADICALS.

It seems, from indications in different quarters, that Governor Holden's friends, if indeed he has any, are falling from him on every side. Trying to sit on several stools at once, he is about to experience the usual luck of such foolish efforts, and flop down on the floor. His action in the Railroad appointments, and treatment of Col. Harris in regard to them, have materially eroded the ardency of affection felt for "our beloved Governor," in the Rutherford and Cleaveland country, among the friends of Col. Harris and Judge Logan; while his Newbern admirers have actually become savage toward him, and the Times—Radical organ of that region—threatens to pursue him to utter demolition. Nor is the Cape Fear region far behind the others in their anathemas, as we learn, by the Argus, that Gen. Docdery, Sinclair, and other prominent props of his Excellency in that section, are determined to withdraw their support from him, for so unceremoniously snubbing them in the W. C. & R. Railroad appointments.

"Alas! Alas! Poor ass! Poor ass!
Dear me! how sad thy hapless fate!
Thy crimes are great, thy doom is fixed,
Reform, we fear, is now too late."

The Newbern Times, the Radical organ in that section of the State, on the 10th inst., gives the Standard the following "piece of its mind:"

"THEY SHALL GO TO THE WALL."—In the Standard of the 6th inst. an article appeared which contained the words leading this article, signalizing that those men who oppose Governor Holden in his policy in regard to the consolidation of the A. & N. C. Railroad with the N. C. Railroad, would be shown no mercy, that Governor Holden would wield the whole power of the Government against them. We say to the Standard that men who dare to stand by their rights are not to be intimidated by any threat made through an organ which has sprung into existence in an hour, as "it's had been touched by the mystic wand of some sybil," and by that touch has become rich and powerful in a day. This threat comes from a man who in an evil hour has been placed in power by the votes of a people who dare yet be free, and he, taken from their ranks, shall not wield the power they gave him, to destroy forever.

'Tis true, Messrs. editors of the Standard, you live and breath in the atmosphere where grand combinations are made, where "Rings" revel in glory, where grand monopolies are made which give into the hands of one man the control of seven and one half million dollars in State bonds, receiving from the people four hundred and fifty thousand dollars yearly to pay the coupons on these bonds. This very year the people of the East have to pay the larger share of this tax, which payment they will make very cheerfully, but when men of the very creation think to use this grand outrageous monopoly against us, we tell them that "votes make and unmake men in an hour."

To the editors of the Standard we will say, the headquarters of your organ is in New York, our advice to you is to get your instructions to keep quiet. This is our fight, and we propose to take all our coat and meet the issue. Keep your hands off, or "by the gods," we will see that your organ is touched by a mystic wand different from that which brought you into being—whose touch will surely destroy.

You say that it may become necessary to declare the office of Superintendent of Public Works vacant. We say that in that hour when a high public servant is kicked out of a position, given him by the people, because he dares to be true to the Constitution and the law, and that too by a power that we can feel yet do not see, we shall not be silent. The deed shall not be done and we sit with hands folded.

We represent the East when we say that they desire and demand the consolidation of the two roads, which alone can give them some of the benefits to be derived from the huge appropriation above mentioned.—Not one dollar of that slice does the East demand, so your "grand outrageous monopoly" turns the freights, the products of Western North Carolina through our ports, the East will submit, but if you do not, you shall feel the weight of her giant arm until your life will be crushed out, and you, now in opulence from the sweat of her sons, shall be consigned to a worse fate than that of "the wandering toad that lives by the flies he catches on the sandy plain."

Our duty, which we owe to the State of our adoption, demands that we should live and move only in her interests, therefore, let no deluded victim of ambition think that he holds the reins of a party in his hands so firmly that he cannot be thrown from his seat and the reins be wrested from his grasp. We shall not be intimidated by any threat, come from what quarter it may."

On the 11th, the Times renews its licks with the following appeal to its and the Governor's partisans, and the people generally in that section, in this style:

"Yesterday we opened an engagement in favor of the people of this section of the State, and if we "go to the wall" it will be after our ammunition is all expended and the last man of the Reserve goes in and is defeated. Your interests are our interests, we, alike of all parties, acknowledge that suffrage shall not be limited by race or color. Questions which come up in time of peace which affect our welfare, must be met, which, if decided in favor of our interests, can only be done by one solid and united front. "Grand outrageous Monopolies" are formed against your interests, the very earth shakes and trembles beneath the mighty tread, as they sweep over your State in the North, Middle and West, drinking the life blood of the East.

The West asks for millions of dollars more than her soil is worth from your Legislature, and the request is granted, while you ask for something which does not cost your State a cent, and do not get it.

If you are prepared to be consigned to the sleep that knows no awakening, fold your arms, and 'twill soon overtake you. As for ourselves, we sound the "bugle blast" that calls men to action. Remember that there are eleven and one half millions of dollars placed in the hands of two men, for the benefit of the West, and this outrageous appropriation is wielded against you. Remember that the only officer of the State Government who has dared to throw his influence in your favor is threatened with removal from office, given him by your suffrages, because he will not creep away like a whipped spaniel and succomb to this grand outrageous monopoly.

Remember! that if you would have your interests protected, you must hold to a strict accountability those men to whom you have entrusted your powers."

We are not to be understood as taking sides in this family quarrel; we copy the extracts to show how "the faithful" are harmonizing; so far as we are concerned we say "pull Dick—pull devil," we don't care who whips. But it must be allowed that these bickerings are signs of better times, as they show that there is some honesty left among those who appeared entirely given up to corruption and extravagance; and in that respect the bolters have our sympathy.

THE RADICALISM OF THE ADMINISTRATION.

In the recent interview between that automatic piece of humanity, by courtesy styled President, and General Tarbell, Secretary of the Executive Committee of the ultra Radical party of Mississippi, the flat of the administration was pronounced against the broad and liberal platform of the Conservative Republican party.

Walker and Senter, to all intents and purposes, were repudiated, and denied as having any affiliation with the true policy of the present government; and a declaration of hostility made against the same party in Mississippi. In short, to give the gist of the matter in a few words, it is officially declared that ultra Radicalism, with all its concomitants of proscription, force, &c., is to be the order of the day, and no man who will not and does not endorse that policy, is recognized by the administration as belonging to what it claims to be, the Republican party.

On the occasion above alluded to, Mr. Grant took especial pains to give the tyrannical and proscriptive administration of Gen. Ames, in Mississippi, an emphatic endorsement, stating in substance, that were all of the grave charges brought against that officer true, that he would have to do many and much more serious thing ere he subject himself to a removal. Upon the heels of this wholesale endorsation, comes the intelligence, that the aforesaid Ames has removed nearly all the prominent officials in that State, who have been at all conspicuous in the Conservative Republican movement.

In this connection we may note, also, the late action of Gen. Canby in Virginia, in repealing an order of Gen. Stoneman, which allowed certain positions in that State to be filled without the requirement of the test oath. By this move of Gen. Canby, every office in the State, occupied by Conservatives however competent, who cannot take the test oath, is to be vacated; and this, too, in the face of the result of the recent election in that State. It is further intimated that all the recently elected officers, under the new Constitution in that State, will be required to take the same oath.

Thus it is that men who dare stand upon a platform that couples "universal amnesty" with "universal suffrage" and cry out against the disfranchisement of any class of their fellow-citizens, are to be frowned down upon, and proscribed by the government of this country. We wish to know of the very "Conservative Standard," if Judge Dent or Judge anybody else is nominated by the party in Mississippi, upon identically the same platform upon which Senter and Walker were elected, will it declare for the nominee?

If it should respond in the affirmative, it will place itself in antagonism to the administration; if in the negative, it gives the lie direct to all its recent professions of moderation.

Sickles, it appears, is to be confronted, when he comes up for confirmation, by as many Republican Senators as have not "personal esteem, respect, and friendship" for a murderer, pimp, liar, thief, defaulter and mutineer. It will be interesting to note who will be decent enough to withstand the party pressure and recall this man, whose presence abroad is a greater disgrace than it would be to send an army of women from Mercer Street to welcome the Empress Eugenie in the name of the wives and mothers of America. A few righteous Radicals, however, are reported by the Washington correspondent of the Herald as having prepared charges against Sickles, based upon the facts of his life as published in the World. At the proper time, the vote on his confirmation will show to what extent the Radical party is committed to the infamy of this man's career. It is well known that Secretary Fish, who protested against his appointment, will be glad to hear of his rejection. Mr. Sumner, however, has written a letter pledging his efforts to secure his confirmation.—N. Y. World.

THE IRON-CLAD OATH.—General Stoneman's liberal construction of the law exempted a certain class of officials, not executive or judicial, from the operation of the test oath. The order issued by him rendered it possible to carry on public business in Virginia. But that order has now been revoked by General Canby, who seems determined to enforce the law in every instance, and, if higher authority does not interpose, to impose it upon the Legislature. Shall martinet lieutenants, strutting their brief hour of authority, be suffered to reign like military satraps and to postpone indefinitely the happy day of Southern reconstruction?—N. Y. Herald.

THE EIGHT-HOUR SYSTEM IN SAN FRANCISCO.—The eight hour system has been sustained in San Francisco for more than four years by the shipjoiners, carpenters, caulkers and riggers; and for more than two years by the house carpenters, plasterers, painters, plumbers, gas fitters, metal roofers, bricklayers, stonemasons, stonecutters, sailmakers and wood turners. The employers have at last commenced to oppose it by closing the factories in which the operatives refuse to work ten hours.

A butting match between negroes is announced in a Southern paper.

For the Sentinel.

THE ECLIPSE.

FITT BORO, N. C., Aug. 9th, 1869.

"Do you know that a wedding has happened on high,
And who were the parties united?
'Twas the the sun and the moon in the halls of the sky—
They were join'd, and our continent witnessed the tie—
No confluent else was invited."

"Foretold by prophets, and by poets sung," on Saturday evening last, occurred that sublimest of all nature's phenomena—a total solar eclipse. The grandeur of the scene bankrupts the puny scope of rhetoric, and

"——description clouds each shining ray;
What terms of art can natures powers display!"

About four o'clock in the evening a party of us—armed and equipped with a refracting telescope, accurate time-pieces, note book and pencil, and a profusion of smoked glass, which the "boys" and young ladies carried—repaired to a grassy, open hill near the village, to take observations of that celestial, hymenal knot. The weather was quite propitious; scarce a visible cloud; and the position most admirable, for, how often have "love-couples" sat upon the moss covered rocks, studding that old hill, and watched the occident suffusing gold empyreal, and lucidly enameling the west with glowing hues, rivaling in brilliancy their own fancies' castles. We felt as though we had stolen away from the degenerate crowd, to "soar above this little scene of things;" and charmed by nature to "hold communion with her visible forms;" then from the body the mind took flight into the realm of boundless space.

Just at 54 minutes and 57 seconds past 4, the moon began to conceal the Southeastern side of the sun, and then gradually progressing, the gibbous form of the sun merges slowly into the crescent, and finally, with the shooting of the "beads," the last of the crescent was seen. Just as totality begins, the chronometer marks 49 minutes and 31 seconds past 5, and the dim umbra, like the condor from the Andes, darts its sable hue adown the sky. All living things are wrapt in night.

"Silence, how dread! and darkness how profound!
Creation sleeps. 'Tis as the general pulse
Of life stood still, and nature made a pause,
An awful pause! prophetic of her end."

What did the illiterate think? What the brute creation? The former that their judgment had come, or it was asked, had Prof. Denson put a piece of paste board over the sun; the latter instinctively knew that something was wrong, and wandered about in utter amazement.

As I stood by the instrument gazing with admiration at the prismatic splendor of the sun's corona, for it was a display no artificial pyrotechny can ever hope to rival, I could not help thinking how many countless millions were beholding, how many lenses were leveled at, this self same object!

Auroral clouds spread towards the North and South, of an orange glow, one-half the way around the horizon. The appearance through the telescope of the corona, and of the rose-colored flames, was exquisitely beautiful—the latter, which have been invested with so much interest, by the discoveries of the spectroscope, were especially prominent—of pure rose-color, darting from behind the Southern and Eastern edges of the Moon, and once from the Western side. The three most prominent were conical, and from one-tenth to one-twelfth diameter of the Moon. It was too dark to read, and the thermometer fell rapidly.—The stars were plainly visible, Venus appearing in great beauty, being closely examined in the field of the instrument some time after totality was over.

At 51 minutes and 30 seconds past 5, totality ceases—the crescent begins to reappear, darkness flies, and nature's pulse resumes her wonted throb. From the crescent again the gibbous grew, and at 43 minutes and 16 seconds past 6 ends the grandest phenomenon the denizens of our nether world can behold.

Began.	Ended	Duration.

ANDREW JOHNSON'S INDENTURE.—The following is a copy of ex President Johnson's indenture as a tailor's apprentice The original document is said to be in possession of a person in Detroit:

"This is to certify that it is my desire that my son Andrew Johnson is bound an apprentice to James J. Selby to learn the tailor's trade, and that he is to serve him faithfully until he is 21 years old."

Andrew Johnson was born in the year 1808, December 29th.

A HUGE AND SAVORY PLANT.—Living specimens of one of the most gigantic plants of the vegetable kingdom have recently been forwarded to England from Nicaragua. The plant is closely allied to the arums (or vLords and Ladies') of the hedges, and until the present time has wholly escaped the notice of traveling botanists. It produces but one leaf, nearly 15 feet in length, supported by a stalk ten feet long. The stem of the flower is a foot in circumference, and the flower is two feet long, purplish blue in color, with a powerful carrion-like odor. A correspondent describes the arum found on the Campagna of Rome as bearing deeply crated leaves about the size of the human hand, but in other respects resembling the Nicaraguan plant. It is a purple spathe about 18 inches in length, and the flower is of the same repulsive odor.

The Young Men's Christian Association, just before adjourning, were in a good deal of trouble about the place for their next meeting. General Howard, who ought to know something about it, urged the selection of Washington, upon the ground that the Convention might do much good for Washington, including Congress. Mr. Moody, of Chicago, one of the leaders of the association in Chicago, objected, and strangely enough upon the ground that the members of the Association would be brought into too close contact with the Members of Congress. He probably recollected that evil communications corrupt good manners; that pitch cannot be touched without defilement.—Metropolitan Record.

GROWTH OF NEW YORK CITY.—A New York journal has the following:

"No other single fact demonstrates so palpably the very rapid growth of our city as the one stated in connection with the ceremony of breaking ground for the new post office. The first shovelful of earth was cast by the man who formerly carried our whole Southern mail in a wheelbarrow, and took it over the river in a row-boat. During one man's life, that wheelbarrow load has grown so that half a dozen locomotives are necessary to move it."

Mr. Forbes, of Boston, had an interview on Saturday at Madrid with General Prim and Marshal Serrano, during which the proposed purchase of Cuba by the United States was brought up. Mr. Forbes was presented to the Regent and Secretary of War by the American Minister. The proposal was not accepted at present. Mr. Forbes, however, continues his negotiations.

THEN AND NOW.

Andrew Johnson, when President, never appointed a relation to office. From him, as from all other Presidents, relatives sought applications. Like Jefferson, he determined not only to be incorrupt but to guard against even the suspicion of corruption.—He had no men in his Cabinet who gave places to relations. His family and those of his Cabinet fared worse in respect to employment in public service than any other prominent family in the country. Still, incredible as it may seem, he did not escape the imputation of favoring his relatives.—A charge so odious the Radicals could not resist the temptation of making against him. He had a son-in law, the Hon. Mr. Patterson, whom the Tennessee Legislature elected to the United States Senate, and the Radical organs, groundlessly assuming that he had procured the election, fiercely accused him of a disposition to quarter his family upon the country. Yes, that single election of a relative of his by a body over which he had no control and sought none was made the foundation and the superstructure of the revolting charge of nepotism. Clamors were even raised in favor of the exclusion of Senator Patterson from the right to vote in the Senate upon questions especially affecting the President. We will not dwell upon the contrast between what then was and what now is. It must force itself upon all minds.—Courier Journal.

ENGLISH SCANDAL.

The Queen's Messenger, a gossipping London paper, edited by a retired diplomat, is playing the bull in the china shop with the aristocracy and nobility—its attacks on great folks being wonderfully audacious. It has openly charged Lord Stanley, the son of the Earl of Derby, with having indulged kleptomaniac tendencies while Foreign Secretary of State. It has recapitulated with great particularity forgeries and fraud extending over the lifetime of the Marquis of Clanricarde. It has charged the Earl of Stamford with riotous living. It has accused the Earl of Dudley of the most extraordinary filthiness and insanity. Even the Queen's cousin, the Duke of Cambridge, Commander-in Chief, has come in for his share of the general shower. Some years ago he married Miss Farebrother, a burlesque actress, celebrated for those liberal charms with which critics find fault, but a very respectable girl. She is not called the Duchess of Cambridge, but the Queen's Messenger calls her husband the Duke of Farebrother. It describes him as having debauched a peer's daughter, and broken faith with the prettiest woman of his time, with being a "panic-stricken coward," addicted to "laughing loud and long at foul jests, beside "habitually using such language as beggars in their drink reject." This classic slipenny journal, moreover, spoke of the cousin of the sovereign as "a vain, dirty, over-fed, sloven, too slothful to dress himself with propriety" "His clothes fitted him ill, and hung upon him all awry; his very star of knighthood was dim, his blue ribband soiled and crumpled, and his linen unclean."

A CURIOUS CASE.—The Philadelphia Ledger publishes the following:

"Within a week the papers of this city contained the account of the drowning of a man at one of the watering places on the Atlantic coast. The body was recovered and brought to the city, together with the trunk and personal effects of the deceased. A friend opened the trunk, and finding a city warrant in it, sold it to a hatter, in order to realize sufficient to pay the funeral expenses. The individuals who purchased it off red it subsequently at a broker's office, when the discovery was made that the warrant was one purchased on Third street a few weeks since under circumstances which led to the belief that it was the basis of the forgeries of city warrants, a number of which have been sold recently. As the gentleman who undertook to sell it had no difficulty in showing where he got it, he was at once exonerated, but the matter was placed in the hands of the police, and an investigation is being made to discover whether the suspicions entertained are correct, and if so, who were the forgers.

"There were circumstances connected with the drowning of the person alluded to which are in a measure calculated to create a belief of suicide. He had but a short time before arrived at the watering place, and when drowned was only a few feet from a female who had gone in to bathe with him, and he is said to have made no cry for assistance, but simply told the woman he was drowning, and said she had better get nearer the shore. The whole affair is a curious one."

The Tunnel under the Straits of Dover, it is announced, has been reported against by the commission of French and English engineers to whom the subject was referred. The construction of the tunnel through the gray chalk is reported to be feasible, but the cost would amount to $50,000,000, without taking into consideration unforeseen difficulties. It is estimated that twenty thousand passengers a day, at a fare of $1 25, or an annual revenue of $9,125,000, would be required to pay the interest on the sum mentioned. It is not anticipated that so large a passenger traffic could be obtained, and unless the English and French governments would pay part of the expense, it would be a hopeless task to attempt to raise the capital required.

WITHOUT SLEEP.—Five young men in Berlin made an agreement, for a wager, to see who of them could keep awake for a whole week. They all held out for about five days and a half, by drinking largely of strong coffee, and keeping up a constant round of active exercise and exciting amusements. At the end of that time two of them yielded to drowsiness; a third soon fell asleep while riding, tumbled from his saddle and broke his arm; a fourth was attacked by severe sickness, and compelled to retire from the list; the fifth held out to the end, but lost twenty-five pounds of flesh in winning the wager. Long ago, Frederick the Great and Voltaire made a similar experiment, making use of the same stimulant of strong coffee, but they did not succeed in driving away sleep for more than four days.

LYNCHBURG AND DANVILLE R. R.—Danville, (Va.) papers state that the officers of the Lynchburg and Danville railroad have made a reconnoissance of the route from Lynchburg to Danville, preliminary to a more active effort in behalf of the scheme. In a short time Col. Freeman will enter upon a close canvass for subscriptions to the capital stock of the company, when he will pass over the entire route, and receive either money or land subscriptions from persons interested. It is believed that if one fourth of the sum estimated as necessary to build the road can be had in available assets, arrangements will be made by the aid of other companies to let such contracts as will insure the completion of the whole work at no distant day.

The Macon (Ga.) Telegraph has the following curious item: "Capt. Wm. Bane submitted Wednesday a black ball about three and a half inches in diameter, found in the stomach of a slaughtered beef. It was very solid but light, and had a lustrous black surface. He supposed that it is composed of hair licked by the creature from his own coat.

Bright one, it is well with thee;
Thou thy Saviour's face dost see;
On the Saviour's loving breast
Now our little lamb doth rest

Here thy laughing face we miss,
Miss thy smile, thy loving kiss,
Yet our hearts must own it best,
God had taken thee to rest.

Father, from thy home on high,
Guide and fit us for the sky;
Fit us for thy home so fair,
Till we meet our lost one there.

DOTY'S WASHING MACHINE,
LATELY MUCH IMPROVED,
AND THE NEW
UNIVERSAL CLOTHES WRINGER.

Improved with ROWELL'S PATENT DOUBLE COGWHEELS, and the PATENT STOP, are now unquestionably far superior to any apparatus for washing clothes ever invented, and will save their cost twice a year, by saving labor and clothes.

Those who have used them give testimony as follows:

"We like our machine much; could not be persuaded to do without it, and with the aid of Doty, we feel that we are masters of the position."—Rev. L. Scott, Bishop M. E. Church.

"It is worth one dollar a week in any family."—N. Y. Tribune.

"In the laundry of my house there is a perpetual thanksgiving on Mondays for the invention."—Rev. Theodore L. Ogden.

"I heartily commend it to economists of time, money, and contentment."—Rev. Dr. Bellows.

"Every week has given it a stronger hold upon the affections of the inmates of the laundry."—N. Y. Observer.

"Friend Doty—Your last improvement of your Washing Machine is a complete success. I assure you 'our machine,' after a year's use, is thought more of to-day than ever, and would not be parted with under any circumstances."—Solon Robinson.

"Your Washing Machine has been in daily use in our laundry, and the housekeeper expresses herself as highly pleased with it. It certainly accomplishes a greater amount of work, with less labor, and does not wear the clothes near so much as the old fashioned wash-board. By using it one laundress is dispensed with."—Wm. M. F. Round, Superintendent of Infant Department of St. Catherine's Nursery, N. Y. City.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Doty's Washing Machine and Universal Clothes Wringer: R. E. Browning General Agent 32 Cortlandt St., N. Y.

The Comet or the Earth in its varied Phases, Past, Present and Future. For sale by Alfred Williams, Bookseller Raleigh. St. Johns College, Annapolis Md.

The Localizer is too unwell to write much, or hunt up items to-day.

THE NEW CEMETERY.—In our ride on Wednesday, we visited the grounds recently purchased for a new cemetery. These grounds lie contiguous to, in fact surround, the Confederate cemetery, north east of the city boundary. We think the Company have made a good selection in obtaining this site for a cemetery. The ground is intersected by two ravines or "branches," has a pretty plateau near the centre, and if tastily arranged, can be made a beautiful spot. The work of enclosing it and putting it in order will be commenced by the Company at once. The street leading to it has already been graded and made passable, and we supppose the lots will be laid off and offered for sale soon.

FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION.—The 15th of August is a day of great solemnity in the Roman Catholic Church. The festival of the "Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary" always falls on that day, and is celebrated with the greatest magnificence wheresoever the Roman ritual can be fully carried out. This year the 15th occurs on Sunday, and consequently this Feast will be celebrated throughout the Christian world, in conjunction with the regular Sunday observances.

In the Catholic Church this city, High Mass will commence at 10½ o'clock to-morrow morning.

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE, ANNAPOLIS, MD.—We have received the catalogue of this Institution for 1868-'69, and prospectus of studies for 1869-'70. The number of students during the year just closed was 225. The next scholastic years begins on the first Wednesday in October.

LAURA KEENE.—This histrionic celebrity will not be here "next week," as rumor gave out a day or two ago, but she is coming in November; at least an order has arrived engaging Tucker Hall for her, for the 22nd, 23rd and 24th of November next.

A HORNEY BON MOT.—As two gentlemen of this city were taking an early morning ride, in a buggy, one morning this week, they approached a cow lying in the street, when one observed "cows lying in the street that way are very dangerous, for, if you chance to run over them they are very apt to upset you." "Yes," replied the other, "two horns as early in the morning as this would be likely to upset almost anybody." We call this a horney pun.

TENNESSEE MEDICAL SOCIETY.—We have received the minutes of the thirty-sixth annual session of this Society, held at Nashville, Tenn., on the 6th of April last. This Society is organized on the same principles and for similar purposes as the Medical Society of our own State. In the address of the Corresponding Secretary, Dr. DuPre, to the members of the Society, that officer, alluding to an examining Board, uses the following language in regard to the Medical Society of North Carolina:

"The action of North Carolina in 1849, which established a similar Board of Examiners, was but the foreshadowing of a new epoch in medicine, and to which she must be awarded as the pioneer and worthy exemplar of a long needed reformation. A disinterested, unbiased tribunal must and should alone set in judgment upon the qualifications of all aspirants to the position and relations of Doctors of Medicine."

ON ACCOUNT of the great number of wonderful CURES of obstinate and inveterate cases of SCROFULA, DYSPEPSIA, LIVER DISEASE, KIDNEY AFFECTIONS, GENERAL BAD HEALTH, &c., made by the celebrated "KOSKOO," it has won the enviable reputation of being the best and most popular medicine ever discovered. It is daily prescribed by physicians, and recommended by many thousands of our best citizens. For sale by Druggists and Merchants everywhere.

There are said to be in the United States a total of six million two hundred thousand members of evangelical churches, including one hundred thousand Quakers. If we reckon three persons to each church member, which is a low estimate, there will be about nineteen millions of our population directly and indirectly connected with the evangelical churches. The Romam Catholic population is reckoned at five millions.

For the Sentinel.

ENOUGH TO FRIGHTEN ANYBODY.

I do not believe in ghosts, but I saw something during my soldier-life in Mexico, which suddenly confounded all my philosophy about the natural and unnatural, and in a twinkling "made each particular hair to stand on end."

Our regiment was stationed at Saltillo. The men were quartered mainly on the first floor of an old convent building, an immense structure, with walls built of stone and adobe. Rude, massive, sombre, it seemed the very home of bobgoblins—if there be such a place on earth. In the rear there was a flight of huge stone steps ascending to a corridor on the second story. Anxious to find more room and quiet than I had the prospect of enjoying with the men, I ascended these steps, explored the second story, and was delighted to discover a large vacant room which promised the rest which I coveted. When the details of the evening's duty had been discharged, I repaired to my solitary quarters. As I stretched upon my blanket, and rested my head upon my knapsack, a feeling of loneliness and almost fear came upon me. That utter stillness, vast vacuity and pale moonlight, wove over my spirit a spell of superstition such as I had never known even in the days of my childhood, when I trembled at the frightful stories of the nursery. But I knew the guard was moving to and fro on his beat by those stone steps, and, gathering a little comfort from that thought, I soon fell into a light slumber.

How long I had slept I cannot tell, but I was aroused in the dead of night by a confusion of strange sounds which appeared to proceed from the corridor at first, and then rapidly to approach through the narrow passage towards the door of my apartment. I could distinguish a sort of tinkling, a louder ringing, a grating rattling and a harsh, heavy, measured sound as of a large axe striking the solid stone. Only a blanket hung at the door, there being no wooden shutter, and as I sprung into a sitting posture, my eyes were riveted upon it. Imagine my horror when without an instant's hesitation, my unknown visitor pressed with a sort of rush right through the wide, high door. There was just enough moonlight to lend a shade of terror to any object it might reveal. The weird mingling of the faint light and deep shadows fearfully magnified the proportions of the monster that burst upon my view. Perhaps my fears gave considerable assistance to the dull light in lending such awful stature to what I saw. First there came what resembled a huge elephant with a short, broad proboscis and two stout, sharp horns where the ears ought to be. Upon his lofty back there sat a seeming giant, bowing his great head and brandishing his long arms in most alarming style. All about him there was a horrible clanking of chains. Who can conjure a more hideous figure! The giant opened his mouth and spake: "Give me some whiskey!" At this my fears vanished in an instant, for I recognized the voice and quickly unravelled the whole mysterious apparition. One of my acquaintances—a Lieutenant—who was so unfortunate as to be addicted to intemperance, had gotten on a "big swell" that night, stolen one of the Quartermaster's mules with the harness on, and rode it up those steep stone stairs and into my lone convent chamber.

Alas, poor S——! The same miserable habit long ago led him to a darker, quieter chamber than that—the cheerless chamber of the drunkard's grave.

STATE NEWS.

THE CAPE FEAR AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY will hold its annual Fair in Wilmington on the 16th to 19th November. The Journal speaks encouraging or the prospects of the Society and the public having a good time on the occasion.

ATTEMPTED TO BREAK JAIL.—One of the negro prisoners confined in the jail of this county, was caught in an attempt to break jail on Tuesday last.—Goldsboro' Messenger.

Holden's "melish" have taxed the people of Wayne county to the extent of twenty dollars and five cents, being expenses encountered in holding post mortem examination, including the coroner's fees, on the body of W. H. Putney, who was killed during the militia riot, in this town.—Goldsboro' Messenger.

JUDGE WARREN.—This gentleman went to the Springs in Virginia, some time since, for the improvement of his health, and we are glad to hear that he is rapidly getting better. Judge Warren is one of our most esteemed and eminent citizens, and we could not afford to lose him from the struggles of the county in these dark and unsettled times. He is in the prime of his years, has achieved a fine reputation, and, in the order of nature, has just reached the period of his highest mental development and most extended usefulness.—Eastern Intelligencer.

NO LIGHT.—The city authorities of Newbern have cut off the gas from the street lamps, and left that city in "outer" darkness.

FIGHT BETWEEN A BABOON AND A SHIP'S CREW.—An English steamer which arrived at Liverpool from Africa a short time since, had on board three giant chamas or baboons, two crockadiles, several monkeys, and other specimens of the natural history of the country. The baboons were very ferocious and possessed of great strength. For their safe custody a strong den with iron bars was provided and placed near the forecastle, so that they could be constantly under the eye of the crew. All went well until the morning of the second day out, when a crash was heard, and in an instant the large chama had wrenched several bars off, and the next instant was on the forecastle armed with the bars with which he had been confined. Here his majesty paused for a moment, and in a dignified manner surveyed his captors. A rope having been got, a noose was formed and cast over his head, and he struggled hard to extricate himself, but without avail. He then attacked one of the seamen, whom he seized by the arm, and, notwithstanding that several of the men belabored him with weapons, the brute would not relinquish his hold until he had torn the flesh from above the elbow to near the wrist, and had been rendered insensible, when he was carried to his den.

On Wednesday last a difficulty occurred at Mississippi City between Mr. Albert Green and Dr. Latham. Green slapped the Doctor in the face, whereupon the latter procured a shot gun and shot Green, killing him instantly.

WHO FRED. DOUGLASS, JR., MARRIED.—Mr. Frederick Douglass, Jr., recently married a daughter of A. Molyneux Hewlett, of Harvard University. Some of the papers have stated that the bride's father is a white man and a professor in the college. This, says the New York Sun, is not the case. Molyneux is a mulatto. He was formerly a prize fighter of considerable repute in England, and is now instructor in gymnastics at Harvard.

Workmen at St. Roche, Lower Canada, are agitating a public meeting to consider the best means for stopping the present exodus of French Canadians to the United States.

Cattle makes six pounds of beef each a day in Nebraska pastures.

They make hay by machinery in England, and whether the sun shines or not.

Carpet-baggers are preparing to make their exit from Tennessee in rage.

KENTUCKY.—The new Senate, so far as reported, consists of two Republicans, two Independents, and thirty Democrats. In the House there is one Republican and fifty-three Democrats.

Cincinnati has 230,000 inhabitants, 119 churches, three morning and two evening papers, besides two German dailies, and 19 weeklies, twenty monthlies and one quarterly. Its suspension bridge has the longest span in the world and cost two millions.

The present mayor of Green Bay, Wisconsin, began life as a wood chopper. He left in the very elegant residence which he has now built for himself a niche for a statuette. His children have placed in it a common saw horse and wood saw, with the inscription: "Papa's first saw mill."

A California Chinaman having been shown by his mistress how to make a pudding containing three eggs, but having seen her throw one bad one away, continued for months after, whenever he made the pudding, to use four eggs, regularly breaking, examining, and throwing one away as he had seen her do.

Judge Talbott of Platte county, Mo., says that a few days since he captured a garter snake about three feet long in his oat field which he killed, and found inside of it eighty-two living snakes averaging about eight inches in length. This will pass the champion snake story of the season.

The Tampa (Florida) Peninsular says: "There will be more cotton raised in this section this year that has ever before been made. Persons who have planted the Mexican cotton say that it produces more and does better here than the sea island."

The biggest man in Indiana is David Bruskirk, who lives in Monroe county. He is about seven feet high and weighs 300 pounds.

The total value of taxable property in Nebraska is $42,000,000. Eight millions of this is property of the Union Pacific railroad. This valuation is six times greater than it was in 1862.

William A. Bethel escaped from the Tennessee insane asylum on the 4th, and is still at large.

Young Forney, a son of the editor of "my two papers—both daily," who has been figuring in the revenue offices at Richmond, Va., has been dismissed.

Both of Brownlow's sons were defeated for the Legislature, which shows what redeemed Tennessee thinks of the family now.

A war had broken out in the Samoan Islands over a choice of a king. One battle had taken place between the rival factions, in which seventy men were killed.—The British consul's flag had been torn down, but no Europeans had been hurt.

Ex-Governor Toucey, of Connecticut, left one hundred and ten thousand dollars.—Among the bequests are thirty-eight thousand dollars to his wife, two blocks of dwellings to Trinity College, and a number of legacies to children, relatives, &c.

ST. LOUIS, August 11.—The Republican's special from Springfield, Illinois, says Gov. Palmer made a speech yesterday, at the republican convention, which was State's rights in politics. He avoided the suffrage question and the fifteenth amendment, for the reason that he opposes the surrender of the State control of suffrage to federal authority.

At Shakopee, Minn., two girls, of ages fifteen and sixteen, daughters of a Swede, named Anderson, each gave birth to an illegitimate child within a day or two of each other. Both retired a short distance from their houses when the births took place, and each one at the same time took her babe and threw it into the Minnesota river. The body of one of the children was found. One of the girls is said to have confessed that before throwing her child into the river she strangled it to death.—Both girls are under arrest.

OUR BOUNDS ABROAD.—London Pall Mall Gazette, estimates the amount of United States bonds held abroad at $1,000,000,000, which, if the estimate be correct, would cause a drain of $60,000,000 a year from this country to pay the interest on them.

An English farmer, by picking over his seed wheat with the utmost care, and planting a grain in a place, at intervals of a foot each way, produces 162 bushels to the acre.

The Radicals of Minnesota are in trouble, like the Radicals of almost every other State. Last fall they gave fifteen thousand majority to the Grant ticket, but in the face of this they are whining over their certain defeat this fall. The party is divided and constantly quarreling, and there is no hope, and this, too, immediately upon the heels of securing negro suffrage for the State.—Pomeroy's Democrat.

On the morning of the 9th inst., Philip Gilmartin, proprietor of the Lake View House, Cleveland, Ohio, shot and instantly killed his son Thomas, while the latter was attempting to enter the house, the father supposing him to be a burglar. Gilmartin was arrested, and is held to await an investigation.

Nineteen millions of dollars is the sum of money to which a young milliner in Fort Edward, N. Y., is reported to have fallen heir.

RICHMOND Aug. 13.—A riot occurred between whites and blacks, at Heathsville, Northumberland county in which a sailor killed a negro.—The sailor was committed to jail, but at night was rescued by whites. Canby has sent a detachment of troops to that point.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK Aug. 13.—An evening paper says Judge McCunn has directed the Sheriff to call out his posse, if necessary, to enforce the order of the Court discharging Pratt. It is rumored that the 69th Regiment has been ordered under arms, to enforce the Sheriff's authority. Judge McCunn will do all in his power to avoid a breach of the peace, but will sustain the dignity of the Court at all hazards.

Marshal Barlow is confident that he has sufficient force at his command to resist any attempt to rescue his prisoner. A collision seems unavoidable.

BUFFALO, Aug. 13.—Goldsmith Maid, won the $10,000 trot in three straight heats, beating American Girl and Geo Palmer, time, 2.19¾, 2.19¾, 2.19¾. The fastest aggregate time ever made.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—A yacht race of 45 miles for the Hyde Town plate, value £100, has taken place. The following time was made: Yacht Oimara 3 hours and 19 minutes, Alma 5 hours and 24 minutes, Gninivere 5 hours and 34 minutes, Egera 5 hours and 39 minutes, Cawdor 5 hours and 39 minutes. The Egera was declared the winner of the plate, an allowance of time have been made.

PARIS, Aug. 13.—The Emperor signed decrees for several press and political offences.

HALIFAX, N. S., Aug. 13.—It is believed that the coal mine owners of Pennsylvania, are attempting to monopolize the coal trade. Their agents hold many mines in the Province, keeping them unworked except at two points.

MADRID, Aug 13.—Estartus, at the head of 500 Carlists entered Spain from France at Puigerda. The entry of other bands at various points is expected. Considerable excitement prevails at Malaga, owing to a Republican movement.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—Cotton firm, in good demand; Sales 2 000 bales 33½; Flour active, shipping brands active; Superfine 5.95 to 6.35; Southern 6.95 to 7.45; Wheat 2 to 3 cents better; Corn rather heavy; Pork steady; Lard firmer; Whiskey 1.12½ to 1.13½; Rice fair; Carolina 8¼ to 9¼; Sugar less active; Coffee firm; Molasses dull; Turpentine 45½ to 46; Rosin 2.20.

RAIN IN FLORIDA.—It does nothing but rain day in and day out, to the great disadvantage of the planters and everybody else. Fodder is being now pulled, and if we don't have dry weather there will be much damage. We are told that the caterpillars are increasing in some of the cotton fields in the county, and things begin to assume an alarming aspect. We have had rain for the last two weeks, and if it don't bring on the worms we will be agreeably surprised. If the rains would cease and old Sol shine forth in all his glory for a few weeks, we could hope for the total annihilation of the few caterpillars that are now lurking in the fields. As it is (and bids fair to continue) we fear for the worst.—Tallahassee Florida Sun.

Special Notices.

"Fresh as a Maiden's Blush" is the pure peachy Complexion which follows the use of Hagan's Magnolia Balm. It is the True Secret of Beauty. Fashionable Ladies in Society understand this.

The Magnolia Balm changes the rustic Country Girl into a City Belle more rapidly than any other one thing.

Redness, Sunburn, Tan, Freckles, Blotches and all effects of the Summer Sun disappear where it is used, and a genial, refreshed, fresh expression is obtained which rivals the Bloom of Youth. Beauty is possible to all who will invest 75 cents at any respectable store and insist on getting the Magnolia Balm.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have used, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Langnor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continued as taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its unrivaled character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral, so complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

PASSING PLEASURES.

Those blessed passing pleasures!
We need not let them waste.
We need not leave their treasures
Behind us in our haste.
We need not doubt their fitness
Where earth's deep shadows fall;
God giving, He is witness
That we shall want them all

Amid the old sad story
Of human shame and sin,
If He gives gleams of glory
We ought to let them in.
And oh, when brought before us
Where heart and soul can see,
How mighty to restore us
Love's little signs may be!

A bird, a tree, a flower,
A creature just as frail,
Will take us in His power
To Him within the veil;
Will come, if He has bidden,
Amidst the darkening light,
And leave us safely hidden
Behind a shield of light.

Perhaps His angels see us
Disquieted in vain;
Perhaps His watch would free us
From some ensnaring pain;
But only He can measure
Who sees our nature through
The good that in His pleasure
A passing joy may do.

If but for one bright minute
Through gathering clouds it break,
There is a token in it
That He would have us take.
And His least sign obeying,
No wealth our hearts shall miss,
Even when we hear Him saying,
"See greater things than this!"

For He the dull ear gaining,
Meeting the dim weak sight,
Our faith is gently training
To bear the perfect light,
And while His mercies guide us,
We in one sure belief
May trust the joy beside us
Even as we trust the grief.

Valuable Real Estate in Greene County, North Carolina.

DESIROUS of changing my residence, I offer for sale my plantation, known as the "STREETER FARM."

It contains 1,900 acres, 1,200 of which are cleared, the remainder is well timbered, with Pine, Oak and Hickory. The plantation is under good fence. Marl and Swamp Muck, for composting, INEXHAUSTIBLE. This is justly regarded as one of the finest Cotton Farms in North Carolina.

There is on the premises a large, commodious Dwelling House, which is being repaired and refitted, together with all necessary out-buildings, including cabins for laborers.

I will also sell with the land aforesaid, all my Mules, Horses and other stock; farming implements, as well as household and kitchen furniture.

This is a rare opportunity for any one wishing to purchase a first-class Plantation in the South, with everything deemed necessary for the immediate commencement of farming operations.

Terms reasonable. Those wishing to purchase can apply, for further information to my Attorney, G. W. Johnston, Greenville, N. C., or to the undersigned.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,

CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.

THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.

Being situated in the northwestern part of the State in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.

The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c., &c.

The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.

Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.

FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.

A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC

Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.

Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. CARTER, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.

The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.

As an inducement for families and parties to spend two months or more, I have concluded to put board down at the following low rates:

BOARD:

For one single month,	$50 00
For two or more months, $40 per month, or at that rate.
For week,	16 00
Per day,	2 50

Children under ten years of age and colored servants, half price. No charge for infants or children under two years of age.

Supervisors.

The Age of Progress.

We publish to-day, the first scheme in the sale of Real and Personal Estate—a Company chartered by the last Legislature, with a capital of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars, and with power to increase that amount to five hundred thousand dollars. An examination of the charter satisfies us that the Company is pursuing a legitimate business; they are empowered to "dispose of Real and Personal Estate in any mode or form they may deem best," and "all laws, or clauses of laws, coming in conflict with said charter are hereby repealed." This is plain and unmistakable English, and we have no doubt the transactions of the Company will prove beneficial to the property holders of North Carolina. For example: Mr. A. owns a piece of real estate which he wishes to dispose of. He throws it upon the market, and fails to get a bid that would warrant him in making a deed. He then places it in the hands of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, at a fair valuation, and the property is sold by chance—the owner gets his price—the Company a fair and reasonable compensation for selling—and some poor man, for two dollars comes in possession of a homestead, which, under any other circumstances, he would not have owned.

In fact, we do not view the Company as a Lottery—it is what it purports to be, a simple Agency for the sale of property, for its true value, which, otherwise would be sacrificed.

We refer our readers to the advertisement—the splendid real estate offered, and the other rich prizes, amounting in all to THREE THOUSAND AND ONE—and the reader will perceive, by the simple rule of division, that there is one prize to every twenty-four tickets.

The General Agent of the Company has given us a call, and assures us, that the success of the Company is no longer a problem. In thirty-five counties through which he has just traveled, he represents the people as being enthusiastic in favor of it—both as to investing, and the placing of property in the hands of the Company for sale. He represents that already, before the first grand drawing has taken place, applications to sell, amounting to half a million dollars, are on file in the Secretary's office.

We learn from the Raleigh papers, that the explanatory drawing which took place in the city of Raleigh, on Saturday last, passed off to the decided satisfaction of a large audience assembled in Tucker Hall to witness it.—Wil. Post.

One three cent stamp must accompany every order. All tickets will have the seal of the Company and signature of the Secretary.

☞ We refer to any Merchant, Banker or other gentleman of standing in the city of Raleigh. For further description and particulars, address

JOHN SKINNER,
June2-tf SECRETARY.
